

CONNECTING FAMILIES TO RESOURCES

Hands & Voices +
Educational Audiology Association (EAA)
September 22, 2026 | 12:00 pm | Zoom

IN THIS WEBINAR, Dr. Riley will discuss the collaboration between Hands & Voices (H&V) and the Educational Audiology Association (EAA), including their Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) designed to strengthen partnerships and better support families of children who are deaf or hard of hearing.

The webinar will also highlight resources available to parents and families through the EAA website, including helpful information, tools, and supports to guide families as they navigate their child's hearing and educational journey.

Dr. Kathi Riley, AuD, CCC-A, F-AAA, is an educational audiologist with 40 years of experience working with children who are deaf or hard of hearing, their families, and the professionals who support them.
